

Woodbury County has suffered from a county-wide flooding event that occurred on 13 March 2019 causing severe damage to public and private property, disruption of utility service, and endangerment of health and safety of the citizens of Woodbury County within the disaster area. Therefore, the County Board of Supervisors has declared a state of emergency authorized under Iowa State Statute and will execute the expenditure of emergency funds from all available sources, the invoking of mutual aid agreements, and the applying to the State of Iowa for assistance.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Jay Taylor", is written over a horizontal line.
